Dear Kim

Re: Appreciation of your generosity and your talent

This letter of gratitude is long overdue. On behalf of the Businesswomen's Association and the many young women who will be beneficiaries of bursaries because of your gesture, I thank you sincerely.

On the 14 September last year when we celebrated Jenna's birthday and the "birth" of the magnificent rose, your work was admired by all and sundry. What a privilege to view such talent! I have delayed in writing to you because I believed that by now, we would have held an event to auction the piece ...

The artwork that you so kindly crafted for the launch of the Jenna Clifford Rose will be auctioned at a function during this year. I'm sure you appreciate the fact that we want this to be an auspicious event and that the timing is crucial. The proceeds will go into the BWA Development Fund for bursaries for young women who wish to study business courses. The Fund was started by the donation from Jenna Clifford of all the royalties from the sales of the rose. Jenna remains our most significant benefactor and we hope that in time to come other entrepreneurs will follow suit.

We will contact you when arrangements have been finalised and we trust that you will join us at this fundraiser.

In appreciation and admiration
